Parents and Students:

My apologies but I do not have a way to filter this group of students. If your child plays a baritone or tuba and plans to participate in Tuba Christmas we have reserved tickets for the Friday, December 6th performance. Spectator ticketing will open up October 1st. It is free but you must call and order tickets if you want to attend. This date is very popular and they will run out of tickets so I would encourage you to order your tickets on October 1st. The event is back at the Kauffman center this year so there is very limited seating. Below is the information I received from the Kansas City Symphony

Thanks,
Mr. Smikahl

Greetings and Merry TubaChristmas!
